

Finding The Perfect Active Living Retirement Community

It's important to know that you are selecting the perfect Active Living Retirement Community for yourself.

After all, this will be your new home. It should feel as cozy as your old home. However, there's a lot that goes into making this decision. It's very similar to that feeling you had when becoming a first-time homeowner. Is the location perfect? How much space do I need? Is it within my budget?

These questions you asked when purchasing your first house are similar to the ones you should be asking when moving into an active living community. Below is a list of questions you should ask yourself when selecting the perfect Senior Active Living Retirement Community for you.

About Gloria Dei

We're A Progressive Care Community

As a Gloria Dei Communities resident you'll benefit from priority access to state-of-the-art progressive care at our Personal Care and Memory Care at the Park facilities. What this means to you is that you will have access to the same level of care — should you ever need it — as that offered by a Continuing Care Retirement Community (CCRC) without the commitment or cost.

You will maintain more independence at a Gloria Dei Independent Retirement Living Community than at a CCRC – You will decide when it is time for a higher level of care, not the CCRC.

All of our communities consist of 220 or less private residences to assure an intimate and highly personalized resident experience.

Consider all the Factors When Choosing an Independent Retirement Living Community

As a non-profit, we do not have shareholders so we continually reinvest back into our communities. This actively supports our mission of celebrating the circle of life, supporting our residents and their loved ones and providing the ability to enjoy a happy and fulfilling life at every stage of the journey.

We are deeply-rooted in the community and are not part of a large national organization.

This gives us the freedom to design each of our communities to match the personality, characteristics and local flavor of the wonderful neighborhoods in which they are located.
